Dear Judge:

I urge you to end the trial against Microsoft without taking an adverse action against Microsoft or imposing any form of sanctions on it.

As a consumer, I do not believe that Microsoft's conduct has been harmful. In fact, Microsoft has brought incredible products to consumers at reasonable prices. Microsoft should be allowed the liberty to design and market its products as it likes, and to conduct its business operation without government interference.

Please dismiss the actions against Microsoft with prejudice. Please do not impose sanctions against Microsoft.

Respectfully,
Jason Frankenfield
